REAL TREAT IS IN STORE

On Saturday evening June 17th at a regular meeting of Paw Paw Grange, John C. Ketchum, Master of Michigan State Grange will address the Grange with one of his happy talks. The session will be an open meeting and all persons interested in Grange work or in rural progress or prosperity are cordially invited to be present. Time is 8 p. m. at Memorial hall.

Mrs. H. W. Barr from Jamestown, N. Y. arrived Thursday and is the guest of Mrs. Zilpha Ferguson and other friends.

MEANS MUCH TO INDUSTRY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Varney returned Thursday morning from the state of Pennsylvania, where they have been engaged in their work for the past two years. They expect to erect a modern bungalow on their lot on the west shore of Maple lake and make it a summer home. Their many friends here are much pleased to learn that they will not leave our little city, but will return during the summer months for rest and recreation and that we can still retain the honor of calling them Paw Pawites.

NEW ASSISTANT AT THE POST OFFICE

Mabelle Warner Resigns after 12 years of splendid service. Arba L. Hawley the new assistant.

A familiar face is missing from the postoffice. Mabelle Warner, who has been connected with the postal service in the Paw Paw office for nearly 12 years, has resigned and her services terminated yesterday, June 15. She started as clerk in the old postoffice building and was promoted to the position of assistant postmaster when the office passed into the second class, which position she has held since that time. No postoffice ever had a more courteous, conscientious and efficient employee than she has been during all these years. Her splendid ability and universal courtesy and application have contributed much to the efficiency and steady advancement of the Paw Paw office. She will be missed not only by the postoffice force, but by every patron of the office.

Arba L. Hawley, who has been the efficient clerk for the past 13 years has been promoted to the position of assistant. His close application and thorough knowledge of the details of the office splendidly equip him for the position. Emmet Cline moves up to the position of clerk, and Guy F. Warner to first substitute. Clara McFarlie is selected from the eligible list for the position of second substitute. This with the new postmaster, H. A. Cole, whose appointment has been confirmed and who will soon be on the job, will constitute the official family at the post office.

FOUR BIG FEATURES AT THE IDLE HOUR

The movies have come back to Paw Paw. This week there are four big features booked for Idle Hour patrons. Beginning to-night, the World Film Co. production, "Hearts of the Blue Ridge." Next Tuesday night, the opening of Wm. Fox photo plays, "The Celebrated Scandal." Friday night of next week "Body and Soul." The serial stories, "Get Rich Quick Wallingford" and "Neal of the Navy" every Thursday night.

The program is one of the best Manager Decker has booked for a single week, and the public is given a rare opportunity to see these four great plays as soon as they are released by the film companies. We notice by the announcements in the city papers that the same pictures that Manager Decker ran in Idle Hour last year are now being shown in the large amusement houses. If you want to see the best first go to the Idle Hour. See bills printed at this office for further particulars.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Decker are entertaining a niece, Mrs. Hattie Clapp, and her daughter from Kalkaska.

ANOTHER SCHOOL YEAR IS HISTORY

Twenty young ladies and gentlemen receive diplomas at annual commencement.

"Keep Agoing" was the motto of twenty young ladies and gentlemen who received their diplomas from the hands and with the signature of the board of education of the Paw Paw high school. The commencement exercises as has been the custom for several years back was held in the skating rink on West Main street. This building to gaze upon the exterior during the drizzling rain of last Thursday evening was anything but inviting, but as the interior was reached, outside world with clouds and rain was forgotten. A scene of beauty and music held us entranced. The cold and barren walls were hidden from view with ropes of gold and blue, many hanging baskets, flower baskets, ferns and cut flowers. The most inspiring sight of all was the colors of "Old Glory" in the back ground. At promptly eight o'clock the graduating class marched down the aisle to the strains of Bagley's Grand March "National Emblem," played as only Fischer's orchestra could play it. The class was preceded by the teachers and the board of education, who also occupied seats on the elevated platform in front. The girls of the class looked very "nifty" in their shirt waist suits of white and wearing a sport tie of gold and blue, the class colors. The boys were neatly attired in business suits and wore ties "just like the girls". Rev. C. H. Heaton of the Baptist church asked invocation, this was followed by another selection from Fischer. Kirke Harrington as salutatorian of the class in a clear and forcible manner, told us why so many of the graduates of our schools through the country did not "Keep Agoing", and we are sorry to say that it is not always the fault of the graduate, but that father and mother may in some manner be to blame for their son or daughter not entering the higher seats of learning. His production contained many good thoughts and was well received by the large audience. The history of the class of 1916 fell to the lot of Miss Gertrude Jackson. Miss Jackson was very much at ease and handled the past, present and future of her classmates in a manner which seemed satisfactory to all. She spoke distinctly and all were able to hear. The class poem as announced by the programs was to have been given by Miss Edyth Loveland for some reason not known to us failed to materialize. Charley Cole surely proved himself to be some prophet and if all he prophesied for the future lives of his classmates comes true, we are sure to hear of some of the great things accomplished by individual members of the class in the years to come. His effort was a good one and showed that he had spent much time and thought on the future of his subjects. Ray M. Henderson had the honor of being the orator of his class and well did he merit this honor. His discourse a masterly one held the closest attention of his hearers. Arthur Nunn acted in the capacity of an attorney for the class and drew up a will that disposed of everything that they did not want or could not take with them to the unsuspecting and helpless juniors. He kept the audience in smiles from the beginning to the end. Miss Clarice Beach as valedictorian of the class bade all adieu in behalf of her classmates. Her production was clever and greatly enjoyed. Supt. V. R. Hungerford in behalf of the school board in well chosen words presented the following graduates with their well earned sheepskins: Doris Johnson, Edna Johnson, Charles Cole, Jr., Arthur Nunn, Harley Mutchler, Irene Smith, Hannah Sturtevant, Helen Lewis, Gladys Hoodmaker, Clarice Beach, Ray Henderson, Edith Loveland, Norman Bailey, Hazel Colby, Gertrude Jackson, Bonniebell Showerman, Paul Neale, Axel McNeil, Kirke Harrington, Ford Sheldon, Clifford Pugsley and Kathleen Miller. And thus the class of 1916 passes into the history of the future.

The boys that compose the membership of the High School band left last Saturday, by way of Carp's fruit trucks of Hartford for a weeks outing and enjoyment at Douglas park near S'ugastuck. They were accompanied by Supt. Hungerford, Prof. Patty and the Reverends Heaton and Smith. As the car passed through town loaded with its 30 boys and all the good things that mother had prepared, it surely looked as though the boys were bent on having the time of their life and that camp life was one to bring forth the very best of a good time.

Bartley Sellick arrived home last Friday from his school at Notre Dame. He will assist his father in the store during the summer.

It's a pretty good plan to shingle

Before the roof begins to leak;
It's a pretty good plan to batten
Before the wind begins to shriek;

It's a pretty good plan to build some sheds
To keep things under cover--
The plows, cultivators, binders
And one thing and another.

And you'll find it a pretty good plan to let
